

Michael Barry

President

Plan Advisory Services

Michael Barry is President of the Plan Advisory Services, a consulting group that helps financial services corporations with the regulatory issues facing their plan sponsor clients. He has more than 40 years experience in the benefits field, in law and consulting firms.

Plan Advisory Services provides information concerning regulatory developments affecting defined benefit and defined contribution plans, focusing on the challenges, opportunities and consequences for sponsors regulatory changes present.

Before founding Plan Advisory Services, Mike was a Managing Director at Bankers Trust and, before that, the New York benefits partner at LeBeouf, Lamb, Greene & McRae. He writes a regular column for Plan Sponsor Magazine (Barry's Pickings) and blogs at moneyvstime.com. You can reach Mike at (773) 600-6457. His email is michaelpbarry@rcn.com.